

Report of the Committee on Arbitration 2019

The Arbitration Committee keeps on promoting members' interest in development into arbitration practice. Members were invited to attend international arbitration conferences and lectures. We have admitted new members into our committee and on the Bar's List of Arbitrators.

The Committee also on behalf of the Bar gave its views on legal reforms in relation to arbitration and attended LegCo meetings to express our views on new legislative initiatives in relation to arbitration and mediation.

Members also involved in legal education and voluntarily helped out in international arbitration moots.
